B. Subjects not taken up for discussion for want of time.

DEVELOPMENT—MORAL AND MATERIAL—(Education.)

(Nos. 7 to 22.)

SUBJECT No. 7.

Grant of administrative and fiscal autonomy to the University.

Mr. S. R. Balakrishna Rao, Mysore University.

Summary of Representation.—The University may be given generally administrative and fiscal autonomy subject only to the interference of Government on appeal.

SUBJECT No. 8.

Increase of funds allotted for the grant of scholarships in the University.

Mr. S. R. Balakrishna Rao, Mysore University.

Summary of Representation.—The allotment of grants under Scholarships in the University may be increased to, at least, Rs 20,000 a year so as to afford sufficient encouragement to deserving students.

SUBJECT No. 9.

(a) Grant of loans to poor students for various purposes connected with their education.

(b) Grant of loan scholarships for professional courses.

Mr. M. Venkatakrishnaiya, Mysore University.

Summary of Representation.—(a) Such of the subjects of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore as are unable to pay their high school and college fees may be given loans to cover their school and college fees, their application fee and the price of their school and college books as also the cost of their lodging and boarding, and their lives insured, the loan advanced together with Savings Bank interest being recovered from them after they take their degree and begin to earn.

(b) Loan scholarships may also be given to all subjects of His Highness the Maharaja as show an aptitude for any profession such as Agriculture, Industries, Commerce, Medicine, Engineering, Law and other paying concerns, on lines similar to those of the Carnegie Scholarships.

SUBJECT No. 10.

Establishment of a University Volunteer Corps in Mysore.

Mr. K. T. Seshaiya, Belur Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—A volunteer corps called "The University Volunteer Corps" should be established, as it makes for the development of the feeling of comradeship, self reliance and such other kindred qualities which are useful to the students in their after life.

SUBJECT No. 11.

Improvement of old schools.

Mr. P. Subbaraya Setty, Arkalgud Town Municipality.

Summary of Representation.—The newly opened A.-V. Schools are equipped with efficient staff of teachers, good set of furniture, etc., while the old schools are not so equipped. It is prayed that the old schools may also be improved in these particulars.